IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO REQUEST SPECIFIC REASON(S) FOR CREDIT DENIAL

If your Application for Business Credit should be denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reason(s) for such denial. To obtain the Statement of Reason(s), please contact the individual or office listed under Lender Name and Address on inverse side of this form within 60 days from the date you are notified of our decision.

We will provide you with a written statement of reasons for denial within 30 days from the date of receipt of your request.

EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT NOTICE

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with law concerning this creditor is:
